

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

To the Federal Communications Commission

I am writing you to encourage keeping the rules designed to promote and protect media diversity in our country. Already most media news coverage is underwritten by big corporations that tend to promote their own agenda in the selection of news stories and the manner in which they are presented. Independent media is important in representing multiple perspectives and greater information range. This is critical for the survival of our democracy as we are facing an increase in centralized power with the patriot act.
